Anyone who pays attention to the news and / or history has to realize there is something serious going on throughout the world. Just in the last 50 to 75 years, we have witnessed so many changes; unfortunately, many of these changes have not been “For the good” pertaining to anything, or anyone. Here are a few examples: Recently, I watched a video in which a person approached people passing by asking them to sign a petition to stop “Amazon” from continuing to sell the Bible! The petitioner stated that the Bible was a book full of “Hate” and compared it to the publications of extremists wishing to eliminate those who disagree with their perspective, thereby hindering “The New World Order,” meaning of course a Socialistic and ultimately Communistic, Godless society so many seem to admire and crave these days. The real scary part is that the majority of the people pushing this trend have no idea what socialism and communism is, let alone what it is like to be under the control of such a society and government! Children in our modern society are “over-protected” in so many ways, yet exploited in others. A good illustration of this is what our children are being “taught” in our public education systems. Just 60 years ago, radical changes took place in our educational system. Prior to 1962 morality, respect, and responsibility were a part of the curriculum as much as the basics, “Readin’ – Writen’ – and ‘Rithmitic!” Since 1962 there has been a decline in all of these including the “Basics,” as social indoctrination seems to be the current main thrust of our educational system at all levels from pre-school through college. For those reading this who don’t know what was significant about the year 1962, it was the year Prayer, the 10 commandments, and the Bible were removed from all public schools throughout the entire nation. Just today I came across a shocking video of a young mother being interviewed concerning what recently happened to her 12 year old daughter. Rather than trying to explain all the details of the interview, here is a link: Shocking Video It would be well worth the time to view this video, especially if you have children in public education. There has been a concerted effort to get God and the Bible out of public education, but what they are replacing it with is terrifying!

The “New England Primer,” was the first textbook ever printed in America, it was used to teach reading utilizing “Bible Lessons” in virtually all of our public schools until the early twentieth century! (See Wallbuilders.com) Here is a link to get a copy of the book. One might ask, “Why on earth would someone want to take away what has been considered the most solid “Moral Compass” in the history of man?” The answer is, “Sane people would not, but morally deprived people would.” Where does “Moral Depravity” come from? Are only Christians or people of other religious beliefs moral and all others immoral? Surprise... the answer is NO! There are many people who claim to have no religious beliefs, some who even deny the existence of God, who have a remarkably high moral standard, in some cases even surpassing the so-called religious! So what on earth is happening, why is this the case? The Bible has the answer, which is why some have found it necessary to remove it from our schools, and eventually from just about every aspect of our lives if they could have their way.

How do the non-religious discern right from wrong?

A more pressing question is, “Why is it some religious people sometimes seem to have a problem discerning right from wrong?” The answers to both of these questions are in the Bible, so let’s take a look at what it has to say. It is a fact that people everywhere on earth have an inherent sense of “Right and Wrong.” In every known civilization, there are certain moral behaviors that are deemed acceptable, and some, unacceptable within a society. Where does this come from? Again, “Ironically” the moral codes, even in diverse cultures, always seem to have a lot in common with the moral laws given within the Bible! Within the basic Ten Commandments, Click on Study Aids at this link to view the 10 commandments there are moral laws common to virtually every society such as those concerning, Murder, Adultery, Stealing, Honoring of Parents... there are also hundreds of other laws within the Bible, having much in common with cultures which have had little or no contact with other societies. Perhaps the following passage will provide an explanation for the commonality pertaining to many moral issues and laws among the peoples of the world:

Romans 1:18-21 (NKJV)

<sup>18</sup> For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup> because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. <sup>20</sup> For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse. <sup>21</sup> because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

The “hard fact” is that whether you believe in God and the Bible or not, they both still exist! See verse 20 above. (emphasis mine) Regardless of what you say you believe or disbelieve, there is an obvious battle occurring, a battle between good and evil... right and wrong! This is not a political battle... it is a Spiritual battle! Why do you suppose there is such a concerted effort in the LGBTQ(xyz-1234) community to force acceptance of their lifestyle and desires on the rest of society? They KNOW it is wrong... You KNOW it is wrong! Why do you suppose people did those things in secret for so long? Even those unaware of the Bible teachings concerning homosexuality hid in shame for centuries because they KNEW it was wrong! I know many may be offended by what I am saying; but, what about those of us who are offended by what the “Gay” community is doing... especially what they are pushing on our children? Why is it, one side has the right to complain but not the other? I have said for many years, “What you do behind closed doors is between you and God.” I have also quoted my late Uncle Joe many times who said, “Your right to punch ends where my nose begins.” For all of you out there... believe what you want, I am willing to converse or debate concerning any subject and I encourage all to do likewise. I cannot force you to see things my way, but I will not allow anyone else to force their will on me or anyone else as long as I have breath. When you go after innocent children... you hit my nose... moreover, you hit God in the nose. There was a Broadway play years ago titled “Your arm’s too short to box with God.” Ya’ll might want to consider that title once again. To the Church out there... stop letting yourself get punched in the nose! Stand Up For Truth!
